LIFE

Food and Shelter

"Donors like you provide:

- Shelter for the homeless
- Rent/deposit for those in need of residency
- Feeding the First Footing Shelter families and providing a food pantry every Wednesday." - Salvation Army New Braunfels

A Better Life

"Despite the neglect she suffered, Terry, 17, works hard in school. She is only one of 18 residents at the Connections Individual and Family Services emergency shelter. NBCF grants help provide a safe environment and counseling to help guide youth towards a better future." - Connections

Education

Fuentes was the recipient of the 2015 W.G.L. Jr. Scholarship. It was the first year of granting from the NBCF Scholarship program.

Faith and Community

Todd and Linda Smith opened the Lindsey Lee Smith Memorial Fund to provide provide travel opportunities, mission trips and cultural awareness trips to those who might not otherwise have such an opportunity.

"Lindsey touched so many lives in her brief time with us. The spirit of this fund is that there is a lot more out there. It's a way to bring that global thinking back to New Braunfels and make it a better place." Todd and Linda Smith
